

Farol Hotel

Unique hotel, unique location, unique Cascais find

The preferred Portuguese coastal town of the smart and savvy, Cascais is a cosmopolitan, affluent suburb beside the Atlantic Ocean just half an hour west of Lisbon. Where Portugal's 19th and 20th-century royal family once holidayed, both Portuguese and international visitors now flock, attracted to its yacht scene, water sports, golf, quaint sandy beaches, historic centre's cobblestoned streets and Atlantic views. Staggering panoramas are just one of Farol Hotel's outstanding facets from its elevated position on the rocky Cascais cliffs. It's also a design masterpiece transformed from 19th-century mansion house to slick, extremely cool hotel. Thanks to the creative talents of local and world-renowned fashion designers, the predominantly black and white interior makes the displays of modern art pop and views from the picture windows sing. There are 33 rooms and suites in total including the spectacular Penthouse located a short drive away equipped with its very own gym, spa, private chef and 24-hour butler service. Back at the hotel and two restaurants and two bar areas serve Mediterranean fusion cuisine, sushi and cocktails, while lounge tunes set a chilled vibe. There's also outdoor space for drinking and admiring more of those great views plus designated areas for business meetings, events and fairy-tale weddings.
